This is a continuing project by the Wyoming Water Resources Data System (WRDS) to provide information dissemination support for the Wyoming Water Research Program (WRP). WRDS is a clearinghouse of water and climate information for the State of Wyoming and provides a variety of products and services to its users. As part of the Water Research Program, WRDS will operate and maintain the WRP web site for disseminating program information, including RFP's and research products; incorporate research products into the WRDS Library; and provide assistance to the Institute Director in submitting the annual application and project reports.
