

Peak Flood Inundation - preliminary map

Dyer Co., TN
map created on 5/26/11

This map represents peak inundation in Dyer County, Tennessee due to tributary flooding in late April 2011 and Mississippi River flooding in early May 2011. It is based on preliminary field data and may not represent actual conditions in the area. This should be considered a draft product.

David Ladd, USGS TN Water Science Center